01-Nov-13 - 03-Nov-13	Etosha East / Mokuti Lodge In the morning we all meet at the Swakopmund Airfield. On arrival at the airfield you will be met by your Pilot-Guide for the coming days. Receive your information pack, and information about the coming days. Depart northwards via Henties Bay along the coast to the Cape Fur Seal Colony at Cape Cross. Then we turn inland and fly to our lodge on the border of the Etosha National Park. You have the afternoon free to explore the Snake Park, or paper yourself with a treatment at the spa. The following day you will go on a full day game drive to Etosha, return to the lodge for lunch before you head out again for the afternoon. www.kempinski-mokuti.com "Mokuti" is a Himba-word meaning "in the bush" and, true to its name, Kempinski Mokuti Lodge is the gateway to a unique safari experience. Come and enjoy the wildlife of the world famous Etosha National Park, home to Elephants, Lions, Giraffes and many more. Choose one of the Kempinski Mokuti Lodge rooms and anticipate the harmony between natural beauty and extravagant comfort. All rooms combine European Luxury with traditional African charm, flaunted as thatched-roof chalets. Don't be surprised to meet a Bontebok or a Giraffe on the way to your room whilst walking through the wide spread and tranquil gardens. Kempinski Mokuti Lodge offers you a range of restaurants and bars, combining African flavors with international cuisine. Two extraordinary restaurants as well as the two bars present an outstanding rendezvous to reflect on the experiences of your day in the bush. Join us in the Tambuti and Boma Restaurants for a soupcon of adventure. You will get to know the taste of the wildlife in every meal. Share with us, your Etosha National Park safari experience and enjoy pre-dinner drinks around the fireplace and taste the welcome of our Marula Bar. Activities (at additional costs, and some are subject to a minimum amount of people) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Game Drives into Etosha National Park Join our guides on a game drive at the Etosha National Park and catch a glimpse of the animals before they settle down and the heat of the day dawns upon them. And as the day winds down, observe the animals as they head to the waterholes to quench their thirst, as a scorching day turns into a magical night. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Morning Bush Walk including a bush breakfast The early morning hours promise breathtaking moments in Etosha National Park. A morning bush walk brings you up close and personal with nature. Allow our experienced guides to take you on a journey of discovery filled with entertainment, awakening all your five senses. Afterwards, enjoy a scrumptious breakfast and nature's sweet serenade especially for you. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Late Bush night drive including sunset drinks and bush dinner Experience a game drive on our 4300 hectar reserve. A sundowner leads you into the starry night and an opportunity to discover the thrill of nocturnal life and splendour not seen during the day. Sit down to a boma fire, enjoy a traditional meal alive with flavour and authenticity. Sink into the call of the wild, owls hooting and the 'sawing' of the ever elusive leopard. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Reptile Park Join our Conservation Team on a visit to the Ontouka Reptile Park and learn fascinating facts about African reptiles. Book your front row seat at a spectacular crocodiles feeding session! Caprivi / Namushasha Lodge

FB

After breakfast you will be taken back to the aircraft and make a short flight to Tsumeb for refuelling purposes. After takeoff we continue north east into the Caprivi Strip, into a very water-rich area. Arrive in time for lunch. In the afternoon you can do the selfguided walking trail all along the edge of the lagoon, or just relax at the pool the next day you will go on a morning boat cruise on the Kwando River, before you return to the lodge in time for lunch. In the afternoon you will be transferred by boat to the BwaBwata National Park, where you will embark on a game drive in open 4x4 vehicles. You have excellent chance to spot Elephant and Buffalo in this area. Return to the lodge in time for Dinner.

Situated high on the bank of the Kwando River, overlooking a tranquil hippo pool with over 300 recorded bird species in abundance. Our morning and afternoon boat trip is a popular pastime and guests are also welcome to try their hand at lure fishing while cruising on the river. Our guided game drives are conducted in the Bwabwata National Park, formally known as the Caprivi Game Park. Both Mudumu & Mamili National Parks on the eastern side of the Kwando River are alternative game drive options for guests who want to self-drive (4x4 vehicle is a requirement). A 4km hiking trail promise to surprise with birdlife and interesting flora and magnificent trees. Certain traditional villages offer guests the opportunity to visit and experience the locals at work while they do basket weaving and wood crafting. 16 Camp Sites, all on lawn, under shady trees and overlook the back waters of the Kwando River.
