

ATWS DOA 2016

Rock Climbing in Hatcher Pass

Description:

Just a short drive from Anchorage lies the premier rock climbing destination in Alaska, Hatcher Pass. With clean granite monoliths, varied routes, and easy road access, Hatcher Pass is the perfect place to rock climb whether you are a beginner or advanced climber. The views and photo opportunities are spectacular with an alpine tundra landscape and gold mining history. Great Land Adventures' guide to client ratio of 1:4 to ensures that each guest gets a personal experience. This is a once in a lifetime Alaskan adventure! All climbing gear including climbing shoes, helmets, harnesses, rope and hardware is provided.

Tour Highlights:

A great introduction to rock climbing
Varied routes available – climb at your own pace and ability
Wonderful photo opportunities of scenic alpine tundra
A once in a lifetime Alaskan adventure
Lunch and snacks included

Adventure Level: 3 out of 5

[Type here]

What to Bring:

Warm Pants and layered clothing
Sturdy footwear for the approach
Day pack
Rain Layers
Gloves
Sunglasses
Sunscreen

Pick up Location: Denaina Center @ 9 am

This tour is a bookable itinerary

Cost – Free to ATWS delegates. Guests - $50 pp

[Type here]